really might be happening that maybe the thing to do, that maybe it is happening because this bill is advancing and that maybe what we really should be doing is continuing to advance this bill and to pass it all the way over to Final Reading because I think you should remember that in the bill it says that regardless of what kind of an offer anybody makes...

SPEAKER NICHOL: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...in any part of the country, that Nebraska banks or Nebraska bankers if they make an equally good or better offer have the right of first refusal. So it is always there, theirs for the asking, if they want to help out. If they don't want to help out, for God's sake, I hope they would just stand aside. Thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Do you have anything on the desk, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion from Senator Haberman to indefinitely postpone the bill. The Chairman of the committee would have the option to lay the bill over if he is so inclined.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vard Johnson, what do you say?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Given the lateness of the hour and the numbers that have gone, I would lay the bill over.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, it is laid over. According to my list, Mr. Clerk, 783 is next. While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign and do sign LB 492, LB 507, LB 507A, LB 791, LB 1058, LB 1056A.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Fenger, I understand you wish to withdraw your amendment to LB 783. Is that correct?

SENATOR FENGER: If you please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have E & R amendments to LB 783.
